Getting There

The 2018 ABA Spring Conference will be held at the American Heritage Conference Center on the Harding University campus, in Searcy, Arkansas. If you are coming into town on US 167, take exit 64, then go west on Race Avenue for about 2 miles. Turn south on Grand Street at the Harding University campus entrance, and drive one more block to Market Avenue. You may park in one of the lots at the corner of Grand and Market (you will not need a campus parking permit to attend the ABA conference).

Enter the David Burks American Heritage Building, on the south side of Market, and follow the signs to the ABA conference in the American Heritage Auditorium.

If you will be staying on campus at the Heritage Inn, use the same door to get to the front desk and check into your room. Visit www.harding.edu/heritage or call 888-766-2465 to make reservations. Many other lodging and dining options are available nearby.
